

WEST PALM BEACH HOUSING AUTHORITY

Dear Residents, program clients and members of the Housing Community:

On January 4, 1999 I began my journey as the Executive Director of the West Palm Beach Housing Authority. We have traveled that road together, some from the very beginning, sharing good times and bad, hurricanes, friendship, tragedy, holiday celebrations, demolitions, rebuilding, rebranding (hello Housing Center of the Palm Beaches!) welcomed new children into the world and lost those we loved. Through it all I learned a lot from you, and I thank you from the bottom of my heart. On August 1, 2020 this journey will end for me and a new one into retirement will begin. My hope is that you will all remain safe; that your home here is decent, and that everyone is sheltered from what has become a very scary world. God bless each and every one.
